Dinner Theater – Almost, Maine

Wednesday, Feb. 13 – Sunday, Feb. 17

Extremely Limited Seating Available

Almost, Maine is the Yuma Art Center's 9th dinner theatre production. Transforming the galleries into a theatre and restaurant, the show will delight audiences with a series of love stories that are perfect for every Valentine. Welcome to Almost, Maine, a town that's so far north, it's almost not in the United States—it's almost in Canada. One cold, clear Friday night in the middle of winter Almost's residents find themselves falling in and out of love in the strangest ways. Knees are bruised. Hearts are broken and mended. It's love, but not quite.

Meow Wolf: Origin Story Film Screening

Saturday, February 2, at 7:00pm,

$5 general admission, Students/Seniors/Military $2.50 w/valid ID available in person only at the Yuma Art Center.

Meow Wolf: Origin Story chronicles the jaw-dropping 10 year journey of an anarchic art collective into a multi-million dollar business. Their immersive, large-scale exhibitions crack open a profitable niche in the arts industry, even as their social mission is challenged by the demands for rapid success. The group's members navigate fracture and loss for years in pursuit of their idealistic vision. They spark the interest of George R.R. Martin and receive his support to take over 140 artists working at a breakneck pace to make dreams a reality.
